My DEAR FRIEND: Your unexpected letter of the 20th, directed to St. Louis, came to me here this day. I thank you for the evidence of your valued friendship.

The political part of your letter is interesting to me, although I am no politician. During the war, I supported the Government against the rebellion with all my zeal. Whatever I had of material or moral resources, was always ready for its add in that cause. I believed that where the interests power and dignite of ways leady for its aid in that cause. Delivered that unless the integrity, power and dignify of the Government was not sustained, we had nothing to live for as a people and nation. This great necessity was accomplished, and a new sentiment and duty involved upon us. We had a shattered country. It had to be gathered up and nuttured in tenderness. We had a Government, the fundamental principles of whose grantization and existence was featured. gathered up and nurtured in tenderness. We had a Government, the fundamental principles of whose organization and existence was fraternity. We had to call together the broken fragments of the party and harmonize them again into if riendship and unity. It was no time for intolerance and uncharitableness. Contrary to this, it seems to me that the action of our Congress has been characterized by an implacable and malignant spirit of persecution against their countrymen who were engaged in the rebellion. Their treasonable clores to break up the Government had re-kind forever.

I regard the plan and policy of reorganization which, at the opening of his administration, was announced by the President (first inaugurated by Mr. Lincoln,) as humane, wise and statesmanly. It embodied every common country.

This plan ought to have been supported and aided along by Congress and the Republican party. And in my opinion, had it been so, we would now see the results in a union of feeling, as well as of States; and also in a larger those devastated regions, without the ex-pense of Government bureaus and agents.

I see neither statesmanship nor particism in the course and action of Congress. In my es-timation, they have been distinguished by pas-ston, intolerance and fanaticism. Their acts and speeches during the months of their ses-sion have been exerted in devising every form of legislative persecution and punishment against the suppressed rebellion and compli-ant rebels.

If we propose to subject those people to the toke of permanent oppression and hold them is the Helots of the nation, it is consistent. If we expect to have then brothers and allies in common cause, we will pursue a different restriction.

is denied by the le iticians in our States, it cannot be so in can-dor; and it is plain, that whatever may be disdor; and it is pisin, that whatever may be dis-guisse, and however the resolutions of pub-lic meetings may ignore it, the real issue now presented and to be determined is: Shall the negro have suffrage? It is folly for men who repudiate the principle, to deny that the issue is before us, and it is a crime against candor to-undertake to conceal it. Several leading Re-publican papers unhesitatingly proclaim it, and the most active of the leaders of the party and the most active of the leaders of the party arow it.

For one, I will never vote with a party which goes for negro suffrage in this country, nor with a party that does not clearly diseard the principle. Negro suffrage is negro equality every way. It is negro Congressmen, negro Judges, negro Sherifis, etc. We owe something to the blood, and dignity, and superfority of our race, to preserve and cherish it without degrading and deteriorating mixtures. Kindness and protection is due to the black race, while they live among us bumanity and justice will accord them all they require. Folitical privileges is the inheritance of the white man here.

Truly yours, W. D. GRISWOLD.

A nugget weighing five ounces has been found of nearly pure gold, and the sand contains dust which it is thought it will pay to work. It has been examined by some of the most scientific men in Indianapolis, and pronounced simon pure.—Hendricks Union.

Heavy Rains.—On Saturday and Sunday nights we had very heavy rains, which has raised the Flatrock creek to a foaming condition. We understand that on Saturday night a bridge and some three or four hundred yards of the Junction railroad was washed off at Lyons' Station, some four miles beyond Connersville.—Rushville Jacksonian.

nersville.—Rushville Jacksonian.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that Daniel Jeffries, a resident of London, Moral township, was almost instantly killed by falling from the cupola of the new church in progress of erection at Brookfield, on Tuesday morning last. Mr. Jeffries was a quiet and inoffensive eltizen, and leaves a large circle of true friends to mourn his sudden and violent death. He was about thirty-soven years of age, and unmarried. He was a carpenter by occupation, and a fine specimen of physical manhood—being six feet wo inches in height and well proportioned.—Shelbyville Volunter.

SERIOUS AFFRAY.—A very serious affray, we learn, took place at Edwardsville, in this county, on Monday last, between Adam Motweller and William Bruder, in which stones and knives were protty freely used. Bruder, we learn, was very severely hurt, and Motweller was also considerably injured—both being cut in several places. Our informant says that too much bad whisky was the cause of the affray.—New Albany Leager.

of the affray.—Noe Albam Langer.

A SANGUMARY AFFAIR.—We have been informed of some of the particulars of a sad and pulnful affair which took place at Clark's Hill in this county, on the Lafayette and Indianapolis Rafirond, on Monday evening. Two brothers named sleigh came to the village with the avowed purpose, it is said, of picking a quarrel with the proprietor, and cleaning out a saloon—owned by George Chaven, who also carried on the business of a green grocer with that of selling liquor. The sleighs drank a number of times and flually get fighting drunk, when they commenced abusing Chaven, and breaking up his property. In his efforts to save his premises from damage, the latter was roughly handled and received several ugly cuts about the head and face. He went to a justice of the peace and swore out an affidavit against his two assailants, but failed to find any body who was willing to serve the warrants. He told the justice if he would grant him the necessary authority, he would himself arrest the parties. The justice did so, and Chavens having armed himself with a revolver, went in search of the Sleighs. When he had found them and stated his rrand, they again commenced an attack upon him, when he drew his revolver and shot offer of them through the breast. He also tried to shoot the other one, but the pistol refused to go off, although he repeatedly attempted for make it work. It is thought the wounded man can not live. We did not learn whether the other assailant was finally arrested or not. The affair caused a great deal of excitement in the village and the feeling runs high.—Lafayette Journal.

What a Whopper.—To give our readers were lived to go off, alto great about the pistol refused to some deal of cause and so the feeling runs high.—Lafayette Journal.

WHAT A WHOPPER.—To give our readers some idea of rebel abolition faischoods, we will give what the reporter of the Indianapolis. Journal sent to that paper in regard to the audience at Colerick's Hall, when Governor Oglesby spoke, last Friday night. It said that it was one of the largest meetings held here, and that "two thousand persons were present at Colerick's Hall to hearGovernor Oglesby speak last night." Readers, you know that to be a falschood, for the hall will not hold over eight hundred persons, and then they would have to be in the seats and around the siles. That is the way they have such large audiences. On that night about five hundred persons were in the hall, and the Journal Hed just one thousand five hundred; but then they need it, let them tell it.—Fort Wayne Democrat. WHAT A WHOPPER,—To give our reader ocratic candidate for Governor of the State in 1931, delivered to a large audience, we may safely say the most able, weighty and argumentative speech that has ever failen from the lips of any man in the court house of Washington county.

The speech was so lengthy that it would be impossible for us to give a full synopsis of all of it. We feel condident in saying that it will be impossible for the radicals to stand the fire of Mr. McDonaid up to the time of the discount. He arguments are all perfectly every whelming, and all who oppose him will be of a jail until the county is out of debt.

How. Joseph E., Moddonath's Speech.—
This gentleman delivered a logical and argumentative discourse at Hamilton's Hall lest night, to a large sudience composed of Isdies and gentlemen. It was undoubtedly one of the very best and most convincing speeches that has been made in Fort Wayne during the present campaign. The speaker was listened to with marked attention, from beginning to end, and effected the most enthusiastic applanes from the assembled yeomanry. We regret that a pressure of business will not permit us to notice the speech at length.—Fort Wayne Democrat.

Wayne Democrat.

RAPE.—One Nigon Tailock, an amorous youth of sixteen summers, was before his Honor D. C. Thomas, on Saturday last, to answer the charge of rape upon the person of a little daughter of Mr. Timberlake, a handsome, bright eyed little girl, between the tender years of seven and eight. We know nothing as to the innocence or guilt of the defendant as charged in the affidavit, but the Justice of the Peace thought the evidence sufficient to hold him in a bond of $500, in default of which he was committed to jail.—Salem Democrat.

Korowo, September 6. EDITORS HERALD:-One of your corps here to-day, and will furnish you a report of our great meeting, but he left in the afternoon, and I must write a word about our evening

Fifteen hundred persons, ladles and gentle men, assembled in the square this evening Mr. C. N. Pollard, an attorney of this city, fore a Republican—now an enthusiasti National Union man-spoke for an hour, elo Other speakers were present, and Senator Hendricks was upon the stand. He had resolved not to speak, as he has to speak again to-morrow, but so many cordial, coaxage and kind invitations reached him that, in agreed to talk fifteen minutes, but he spoke orty-five, and this speech was the best of his life. Although the air was damp, and the dews were falling, not one person left his or her seaf. Senator Hendricks at once saw he her seat. Senator renderees at once saw ac had an attentive and appreciating audience. He warmed up, and such a religio-politi-cal sermon I never heard. National Union men became as happy as Methodists at a camp meeting, and radicals stood amazed at the clearness of the great truths enunciated by the speaker. I am a church going man, have always been, but such a sermon as this I never heard. Whatever radicals may do, those who heard Senator Hendricks to-night know that he preached the truth, that his ideas are grand and in harmony with the spirit of christianity. Religious persons said "God bless him," the faithful went home rejoicing, and the unbelievers de-parted under deep convictions. May God send his spirit into their hearts and give them

—Major General Andrew Humphreys, of the army of the Sons of Liberty, is the Democratic (2) nomines for representative in Greene county. —Terre Haute Express.

—The Seymour Union has been reduced in size. We regret this, as the Union is one of the best local papers in the State, and merits a better support than it seems to have been receiving.

The above falschood the Express copied from the Indianapolis Journal. Mr. Humphreys is not a candidate for any office, but a coursin of his, John G. Humphreys, Esquire, is a candidate for State Senator from the counties of Green and Owen, we believe. The Express and the Journal both knew they were giving currency to a lie when they published the Item.

BALLOON ASCENSION. On Saturday evening the Circle and adjoining space was filled with men, women and children, to witness the ou Saturday night, for the purpose of making ascension of Professor Brooks. By noon the arrangements to receive the President of the people commenced gathering around the place where the balloon was being inflated, and many persons must have remained on the ground from four to five hours. During the tain W. P. Noble, Major George Butler, Major evening the Professor made a little speech, then the collectors commenced making their rounds, and about five o'clock the balloon went up. The Professor attempted to fulfil his promise to make the ascension, but it was ascertained, on making the attempt, that he was too heavy, and a smaller man, who was entirely inexperienced, volunteered to take his place. The balloon ascended very Up Tennessee street to Washington, on Wash slowly, and passed the steeple of the Episcopal church, having only attained a hight about equal to that of the steeple. It passed over the city, in a Northeasterly direction, at about the same hight, but when the country as reached ballast was thrown out and a higher we learn that, in attempting to come down, National Union Meeting in near Minnewa Spring, the balloon struck a tree and nearly threw the young man out, and he, fulling to obtain control of it again, jumped twelve feet to the ground, allowing it to es-
